LEADER KEY

STEP 1 | DISCOVER

INITIALS

- a) Read Joseph Smith—History 1:5–17 and identify one problem Joseph could not solve without revelation.
- b) Identify five major events in early Church history and explain why each mattered at the time.
- c) Study one early Church leader and identify one trial that tested their faith and leadership.

STEP 2 | PLAN

INITIALS

- a) Choose one Church history location connected to persecution, sacrifice, or revelation.
- b) Select two primary historical sources connected to that location or event.
- c) Prepare three questions about faith, leadership, or opposition you want answered.

STEP 3 | ACT

INITIALS

- a) Visit the site or complete a virtual tour and record five observations that made the history feel real.
- b) Read both primary sources and identify one detail that corrected a misunderstanding.
- c) Teach one Church history event to another person, focusing on faith under pressure.
- d) Explain how one historical decision affected the Church long-term.

STEP 4 | REFLECT

INITIALS
