LEADER KEY

STEP 1 | DISCOVER

INITIALS

- a) Read Luke 9:23–25 and identify two specific costs of discipleship Jesus describes. Explain them in your own words. _____
- b) Identify three commandments or teachings of Christ that require daily effort and explain why each is difficult to keep. _____
- c) Study one Book of Mormon example of discipleship and identify the single choice that proved their faith, including consequences. _____

STEP 2 | PLAN

INITIALS

- a) Identify one habit or behavior that interferes with discipleship and describe the real situations where it appears. _____
- b) Choose one Christlike action that directly replaces that habit and explain why it is harder but better. _____
- c) Identify one accountability person and explain exactly what they will ask you after your actions. _____

STEP 3 | ACT

INITIALS

- a) Face three real-life situations where your chosen habit normally appears and deliberately choose the Christlike action each time. _____
- b) Perform one quiet act of service that costs time, comfort, or convenience. _____

- c) Share one gospel truth or testimony with someone outside your immediate family and respond respectfully to at least one question. _____
- d) Lead a short discussion with your accountability person explaining what obedience cost you and what it changed. _____

STEP 4 | REFLECT

INITIALS

- a) Write a reflection explaining which choice was hardest and how discipleship required action, not intention. _____
- b) Bear testimony of following Christ when it was uncomfortable. _____
