LEADER KEY

STEP 1 | DISCOVER

INITIALS

- a) Read Doctrine and Covenants 38:30 and explain how spiritual preparedness supports calm, wise action during emergencies. _____
- b) Explain the five phases of emergency preparedness—prevention, protection, mitigation, response, and recovery—and give one real example of each from daily life. _____
- c) Identify six common emergency categories (fire, medical, weather, vehicle, water, violence/public hazard). For each, name one first wrong move people often make. _____

STEP 2 | PLAN

INITIALS

- a) Build a simple Top 10 emergency list for your household or unit and assign each a first action and first call. _____
- b) Create two short plans for where you live: shelter-in-place and evacuation, including one meeting location and one out-of-area contact. _____
- c) Plan and explain a personal emergency response role you could fill safely. _____

STEP 3 | ACT

INITIALS

- a) Conduct a home or meeting location hazard walk-through with an adult and identify at least eight hazards, then explain how you would reduce the risk of each. _____

- b) Demonstrate safe responses for the following dangerous situations without putting yourself at risk. _____
- b.1) b.1) Live household electrical hazard. _____
- b.2) b.2) Carbon monoxide danger in a structure. _____
- b.3) b.3) Clothing on fire. _____
- c) Demonstrate three signaling methods for rescue and explain when each is appropriate. _____
- d) With a partner, demonstrate two methods for moving an injured person using improvised materials, prioritizing rescuer safety and patient protection. _____
- e) Prepare or inspect a ready-to-go emergency kit and explain the purpose of each major category of item. _____
- f) Participate in an emergency service exercise or real service response and explain what you did and what you would improve next time. _____

STEP 4 | REFLECT

INITIALS

- a) Describe one moment in your preparation where you had to choose between comfort and readiness, and what you learned about discipline. _____
- b) Explain how your readiness can be used to serve and protect others, connecting your experience to Mosiah 2:17. _____
